

COUNTERING VIOLENT CONFLICT & POLARISATION. HOW CAN DONORS HELP?

5th - 7th
February 2024

Titanic Belfast
Belfast, Northern Ireland

Set against the backdrop of 25 years of the Good Friday Agreement in Northern Ireland, this international event, hosted by Social Change Initiative (SCI), will provide a unique opportunity for donors to connect, reflect and learn about the ways in which they can help to advance positive social change and counter polarisation in conflict-affected societies.

The conference programme will have contributions from philanthropy, government donors and field practitioners including Mary Robinson (The Elders), John Paul Lederach (Humanity United), Volker Turk (United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights), Mark Malloch Brown (Open Society Foundations), Dough Griffiths (Oak Foundation), Kathryn Nwajiaku-Dahou (Overseas Development Institute) and Mariana Casij (Institute for Integrated Transitions) with more speakers being confirmed in the next few weeks, adding further depth and diversity to our discussions.

For those with an interest to learn more about the role that funders have played in Northern Ireland to tackle conflict and polarisation, a further optional one day programme is available on 8th February.

Don't miss this opportunity to be part of this timely conversation.
